

Re: Compliance with HEA Title IV, Section 485(j) Missing Person Procedures

The University must establish a missing student notification policy and procedures for those who reside on-campus. Among other things, the student must be given the option to provide confidential contact information for a person to be notified in the event the student is officially reported as missing.